The IRIS fin has a 45-degree swept-back leading edge, a symmetrical circular arc cordwise cross section and a constant-taper spanwise cross section. The root cord length is approximately 39 inches and the distance between root and tip cord is approximately 19 inches.